Miscellaneous

1. Confidentiality

Neither Party nor any of its employees shall divulge to any third party (other than affiliated companies or in the case of EBU, to its affiliates) any of the terms of this Rights Confirmation without the express written permission of the other, save as may be necessary in order to comply with any legal or regulatory requirements. This Clause shall survive the expiry or termination of this Rights Confirmation.

2. Entire Agreement and written Form

This Rights Confirmation (together with its Schedules which form an integral part of this Rights Confirmation) represents the entire agreement between the Parties in relation to the collaboration/cooperation described herein. This Rights Confirmation replaces all written and/or oral agreements between the Parties relating to the subject matter of this Rights Confirmation and supersedes all previous understandings, negotiations and proposals as to such subject matter.

3. Severability

If any provision contained in this Rights Confirmation is held for any reason to be unenforceable or void under the applicable laws and regulations of the Territory or Switzerland, the validity of the remaining provisions hereof shall not be affected and shall remain in full force and effect, and this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable provisions had not been contained therein, and the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to replace any unenforceable provision by such enforceable provision as has effect nearest to that of the provision being replaced.

4. Applicable Laws and EBU Rules, Dispute Resolution

The Media Rights have been acquired by EBU by means of a joint acquisition in the framework of Eurovision, and the Statutes of the EBU, the EBU Code of Finance and the EBU Sports Rights Acquisition Rules and Procedure fully apply to the grant of Media Rights by EBU to the Licensees under this Rights Confirmation.

The interpretation, construction and effect of this Rights Confirmation shall be governed in all respects by the laws of Switzerland. Where a claim or dispute arising out of or in connection with this Rights Confirmation, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, is not settled by negotiation, the EBU Sport Presidency shall be entitled to suggest an appropriate remedy or sanction, unless a conflict of interests exists, in which case the concerned party / member of the EBU Sport Presidency must recuse himself/herself.

If the mediation procedure described above does not resolve the dispute, either Party may proceed with arbitration by written notice to the other Party. In the event that a Party proceeds with arbitration, any claim or dispute arising out of or in connection with this Rights Confirmation, including disputes on its conclusion, binding effect, amendment and termination, shall be resolved, to the exclusion of the ordinary courts in accordance with the Rules of Arbitration for the time being in force of the Swiss Rules of International Arbitration of the Swiss Chambers' Arbitration Institution. A three-person arbitral tribunal shall be appointed, one (1) arbitrator to be appointed by each party and the third by the appointed arbitrators in accordance with the Swiss Rules of International Arbitration of the Swiss Chambers' Arbitration Institution. The decision of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding on the Parties. Each Party bears its own costs.

Yours sincerely,

Stefan-Eric Wildemann

Head of Football – EBU Sport
